SHOW MY HOMEWORK

A lot of students get stuck on this screen thinking they can't log in, and that's because they aren't selecting 'Sign in with Google', which can be found underneath the 'Log in' button. Trying to use any other option on this screen will not work.

After you click on Sign in with google, you'll be presented with a new window asking you to input an email. Use your school email here (Your login username + @francesbardsley.co.uk). Once you've entered your email, click 'next' and it should take you to a new screen.

On this LGFL screen, you simply need to enter the details you use to log onto the computers. Once you've entered those, click login and you should be taken to Show my homework.

If you have issues with this, contact a teacher or the IT team for help. Very often students enter their emails incorrectly when logging into SHMW for the first time which locks them out.
